TRAVEL TEACH EXPERIENCE...

TESOL stands for Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages

What is TESOL?

TESOL is a certification accepted in over 100 countries around the world as a staple of qualification for teaching English. This certification is required by accredited schools, oftentimes to get a work visa to teach in other countries, and to qualify to teach online.

Who is it for?

Anyone looking

- For a Change of career
- To get a job teaching English as second language
- To travel the world teaching English
- To make money teaching English online

Is TESOL the ONLY certification?

-NO

Other certifications are:

- CELTA and DELTA: Focused on teaching adults. (Usually more expensive and lengthier)
- TEFL – Similar to TESOL and focuses in teaching English as a Foreign Language
- ESL Degree – Either an undergraduate or a graduate degree.

...TESOL focuses in teaching English to different age groups, it's faster and more widely accepted!

Who can take the course?

Qualifications:

- 18 years of age and older
- High School graduate
- Native speakers

or

- International students that have a proven C1 level of English according to the CEFR/GSE proficiency scales plus an endorsement letter from a faculty member where they study or have studied.

or

- International students holding a valid TOEFL® score of at least 80 or IELTS of 7.5 or more.

*Document verification will be required.

A young man and woman are smiling and looking at a map together. The man is wearing a blue t-shirt and a plaid shirt, and the woman is wearing a blue tank top. They are outdoors, with a blurred background of trees and a body of water.

Where can I teach abroad?

TESOL is accepted in over 100 countries around the world

Countries and requirements vary:

- A high school diploma + a TESOL certificate
- A BA + a TESOL certificate
- A BA + TESOL + teaching experience
- All of the above + a MA + teaching experience

*Jobs, visa and benefits will vary greatly from country to country, education, and experience.
